CRADDOCK'S.

The Leading Saloon in Denton.

It is being universally admitted that Marion Craddock is the most successful saloon man in Denton; that he attends strictly to his own business, and keeps a better stock of liquors and cigars than anybody else; that he treats everybody alike, and allows especial favors to neither rich nor poor. That his ample means enables him to buy for the cash, and thus buy the best goods for the same money that others pay for poor articles of goods; that he has the best men in the country he can find suited to wait upon his patrons, and refuses to advertise nine, ten and twenty year old whisky, which has been sold long ago, unless it is a very bad article; that he represents his goods just as they are, and thus secures and continues to enjoy the confidence of the people; that he buys only in large quantities, and is the leader in the saloon business; that he keeps the best and only the best liquors and cigars, and has convinced the people that this is so, and the people, being satisfied always go to Marion or Green, when they desire value received for their money.

Lost.

One red Russian leather pocket book containing $19—$5 bills and $4 in specie, and some papers of use to none but myself; on the Denton and Aurora road, October 8th. The honest finder will confer a favor and be liberally rewarded by returning the same to H. C. LEONARD, Aurora, Texas.

I will pay cash for old gold and silver. ALEX T. ODENEAL.

Get your beef and bread at Pass Bros., west side of Square.

B. F. McDermott is the gentlemanly night operator at the depot.

If you want your hair chain mounted, call on Odeneal at Ross' Drug store.

Election Tickets.

There are a few candidates who have not yet handed in their names. Print on the Democratic ticket, one dollar per name. Special tickets, three dollars per thousand. Every name should be in by the first of November.

Goods are arriving for the fall trade at Kowsky & Austin's. New York and

The finest [illegible] and gent's [illegible] tion, at Fain, Peery & Shelton's.

Cream of Kansas—a beautiful white flour, will always give satisfaction. Kowsky and Austin keep it.

The Millinery Department of Fain, Peery & Shelton's is not the least attractive feature of that extensive dry goods establishment. Those skilled ladies are giving universal satisfaction in fitting dresses and hats upon ladies. A common dress looks splendid if it fits, and a fine dress looks common if it does not fit. The dress and hat makers in the millinery department understand their business.

CHEESE IT.

And don't you forget it, that Kowsky & Austin have just received some nice fresh cheese which is selling like Welsh Rarebit.

Go to Carter and Nolen's New Grocery Store, north side square.

Go to J. M. McNiel & Co for the latest styles in ladies dress goods, prettiest prints, under wear most comfortable and fashionable.

Fresh Groceries.

R. C. Scripture has just received the largest, best and most varied stock of groceries, including the finest and best assorted brands of coffee, teas, sugar, tobacco, flour, cigars, salt, and every other article in the grocery line.

Also, a large supply of bagging and ties.

Mr. Scripture is agent for the best wagon in Texas.

He is selling salt at two dollars and fifty cents per barrel; coffee, 8 pounds for one dollar.

Call and purchase elsewhere, if you wish to save money.

Remember the place—at R. C. Scripture's.

Carter & Nolen, the new grocery men, on the north side square, cannot name their articles in the newspapers. Such an effort would fill all the papers. Come for yourselves, and learn prices, which are very low.

Candidates for Representative, and other county offices will speak at Denton on the 21st inst., at 1 o'clock p. m. and Jackson school house at 7 p. m.

Go to Egbert & Fritzlen's hardware store, on the south side, for the cheapest goods in town; they were bought at a bankrupt sale and are offered at about half the usual price.

An Officer.

Samuel J. Woodward, who has retired from business, will, on the first of next month, place such accounts in the hands of an officer for collection as are not settled by that time. No exception will be made in favor of any one. All will be served alike.

CARTER AND NOLEN.

A New Grocery Firm.

Messrs. Carter & Nolen have opened a first class grocery store on the north side of the square, in the house formerly occupied by Mrs. Hyatt's Millinery Store. They propose to run the business on a cash basis, and sell groceries, taking quality of goods into consideration, at prices never before offered in Denton. They have every article that can be found in any other grocery and provision store, and kindly request the people of Denton to call around and give them a trial. They guarantee perfect satisfaction to every customer, or money refunded.

Eld. Morrison will preach at the Christian Church Sunday at 11 o'clock and at night. All are invited.

J. M. McNiel & Co.

The new stock of J. M. McNiel & Co. embraces everything in the dry goods and clothing line. Their clothing and dry goods are equal to any other in the city, and prices are low as the lowest. Call on J. M. McNiel & Co. before purchasing elsewhere.

James H. Harris, an excellent gentleman, who has had bad luck with his crop, desires the people of the town, who have credited him, to give him a little time, and he will pay all the outstanding claims against him. Or, if they would prefer not to extend time, he will settle in wood, as fast as he can haul it. Mr. Harris is good for his debts, but has had bad luck. He will pay all he owes.

The Southern Illinois Nursery will deliver their trees for Denton delivery on Friday the 3d day of November 1882. Hoping that all who have kindly favored us with their orders will be on hand that day, we remain

Rich's Star Store.

Look at the pictorial advertisement of Rich's Star Store. If you are in want of any goods, go and see for yourself, and we know you will be satisfied. We know whereof we speak, having tried him and come away fully satisfied.

Prof. E. Wears, the artist, has finished the new advertising drop curtain at the Opera House. It is an excellent job, and reflects much credit upon the artist.

Candidates for different offices will speak in this city, at 1 o'clock p. m., on the 21st inst. Go and hear them.

Mr. W. L. Donavan, who returned from Illinois on Wednesday of last week, has finished his fine dwelling on Oak Street, just a mile and twelve feet from the court house. It is located fifty-two feet above the level of the court house square.

Arriving.

An immense stock of dry goods, clothing, boots, shoes, ladies' dress goods, ladies' hats and shoes, is arriving at the store of P. Hymes. It will pay any one to call and examine these goods, just from New York. Oh apest store in town. Call on P. Hymes, west side square.

Mr. Will Baines returned from his old home at Terrell Wednesday. He was present at the big fire in that city, and says the loss will exceed fifty thousand dollars besides insurance.

Those boots and shoes at Fain, Peery & Shelton's are attracting a great deal of the attention and admiration. They are new styles and for the fall trade. Prices range from six bits to six dollars.

Dr. F. M. Faught has returned from his extended trip, looking in good health.

Get your hardware at Egbert & Fritzlen's, south side square, cheapest and best in the city.

Finest lot of coffee in town at Bain Brothers, south side.

Local News.

Finch has changed the time of speaking from 1 o'clock to 2 p. m.

Judge Potter adjourned court on Tuesday. The grand jury adjourned last Friday. The infant of Walter J. Sams died last Friday and was buried on Saturday. The Firemen's Ball did not occur on Tuesday night. It was postponed. A Union prayer meeting is in progress. It moves from church to church. Miss Mattie Allred, daughter of G. T. Alred, died last Friday and was buried on Saturday. She was a beautiful and intelligent young lady. R. J. Rich and Marion Craddock paid the Monitor a pleasant visit yesterday. The water in Elm Bottom is said to be four miles wide and a foot above the bridge near Trinity Mills. Pecan creek was out of its banks in this city. A hat was found in the yard of Hon. F. E. Piner, on Saturday night, and it was at first supposed a burglar had invaded the premises. It was afterwards ascertained, however, that some one took on too much benzine, and strolled about the place by accident. Col. Tom Murray, of McKinney, was here on Monday. Steve Donald's fine white horse was stolen from the horse rack in Lewisville on Saturday night last. Mr. W. H. Cleaveland was struck by lightning, at his residence, in this city, on Sunday evening last. He is getting over it, however, and was at his store yesterday. Mr. Ed. Willson returned from an extended trip on Wednesday.

Tickets.

The Monitor will print ten thousand tickets for the election on the 7th of next month. Candidates should hand in their names in time.

Capt. Grady presents us with a number of late peaches, the best of the season. He will grow peaches until Christmas.

If you want any kind of a trunk at any price, call at Fain, Peery & Shelton's.

Patronize home industry. Buy your Saddles, Harness, Collars, etc., from Carl P. Sites, who manufactures his own goods.

The Tonahawk chewing tobacco, kept by Kowsky & Austin, is unquestionably a very fine tobacco, and is equalled by none. Try a plug.

Bitten by a Dog.

Last Wednesday evening, as [illegible] and a little girl, were walking on the south side of the square, a dog sprang from under a country man's wagon, and bit the two children. The owner of the dog immediately got into his wagon and drove out of town, taking his dog with him. It was apprehended at the time that the dog was mad, but at this writing we have heard nothing positive in regard to it.

CALIFORNIA CHERRIES, fresh, sweet and delicious, at Kowsky & Austin.

Found—A couple of door keys, which the owner can get by calling at this office.

Board and lodging at the Greer House, the best and cheapest in the city.

Carl P. Sites is enlarging, ceiling, and otherwise improving his saddlery establishment on the east side.

Elder R. M. Kilgore, is in the city, and will probably preach.

Among the grocery men looking up in Denton the Bain Brothers occupy a prominent position. They are receiving goods by the car load, and are competing in prices, with the grocery establishments of Dallas and Fort Worth. Three car loads of groceries were received the early part of the week, and others are on the road. It is remarkably strange, but nevertheless true, that they are selling 8 pounds of coffee for one dollar, and other staple goods proportionly low. Their salt is of a splendid quality, and remarkably low priced, and their white fish and mackarel in the best that could be found upon the market. They have a large supply of bagging and ties which are offered at wonderful low figures. They are men of pluck and enterprise, and are already commanding a large patronage.

For fine French candy give J. B. Geers a call.

F. E. Piner, H. C. Ferguson, and A. C. Owsley, who defended Nath Williams, who killed the negro, Ira Jolce, at Lewisville, (though appointed by the court), labored faithfully for their client, and cleared him. Williams' wife shouted for joy, and the lawyers were happy. They took their fees in happiness.

Apply to A. D. Beaty for a cheap farm, stock ranch or town property if you want to rent or buy, or he will sell you a monument or a headstone for the departed. Office over Schmitz & Schwarz's furniture store, Denton, Texas.

Adjournment.

The final adjournment of the District Court occurred last Tuesday night. It is true that the court was officially adjourned during the day, but then there was some very important matters still on hand to be disposed of that will not appear upon the regular minutes, and that do not constitute a part of the records of the court.

The lawyers and officers of the court had been hard at work for the last four weeks, and looked like they were hanging on the ragged edge of nubappiness. We presume they were sympathizing with the many convicted—we mean convicted—prisoners that had passed through the halls of justice and shed tears as they heard the tolling of the R. V. Bell (R. V. is the retributive vengeance) and received free passages to the Potter's field at Huntsville.

All hands were Marshall-ed at the courthouse early in the evening under the control of a watchful Shepherd, and listened to a [illegible] Carrolling of [illegible] back. A Dallas Pie [illegible] now we need help, and your little accounts due us are greatly needed. Mr. W. S. Fry is authorized to collect and receipt for us all debs due us jointly or severally.

HERBERT & MATLOCK.

Homan the Greenbacker, whose reputation rests on the fact that he prepared and succeeded in passing an unconstitutional bidets-mill bill, and who was elected by the colored vote, has been speaking. He says he refused a place on the Jones-Davis combination ticket, and that he has secured on Jones and the colored voter. We think the result will show that a great many others have soured on the striped, fence-straddling combination. We are informed by leading Germans that it won't get a dozen German votes in this city.—Dallas Times.

The Pass Brothers will open a butcher shop on the north side of the square, next to Hall's Grocery, next Monday.

The article on the outside in regard to a protective tariff on wool, should have been credited to the Independent.

From Dr. Everett.

To Why One Who Knows:

In it a fact that the money arising from the sale of Denton county school lands, situated in the counties of Archer and Wichita is really loaned to the county of Denton, contrary to law?

Is it a fact that all the late bridge contracts were privately let, and that no advertisement was published for bids for the same?

Is it a fact that Mr. Thornton was allowed to put in four separate bids for the wood work for the bridges, after knowing what Mr. Baumgartner had bid for the same? CHAS. EVERETT, M. D.

Denton, Oct. 18, 1882.

D. A. Robinson returned from Dallas yesterday morning, by the way of Fort Worth. He was afraid to cross Elm bridge during such weather as this.

Friendly Notice.

To our patrons: All persons owing us are requested to come and [illegible] at once. We have [illegible] now we need help, and your little accounts due us are greatly needed. Mr. W. S. Fry is authorized to collect and receipt for us all debs due us jointly or severally.
